Dear Patron,

Midland Valley High School Agricultural Education Program invites you to become actively involved in the development of a nationally recognized agricultural education and student development organization representing the state of South Carolina.

Invest in the future of South Carolina and the Aiken County area by donating to a cause that is helping to develop the future leaders of our state and community. The Midland Valley Agriculture Education Program exemplifies through its students those qualities of leadership, dedication, integrity, and pride that contribute to great leaders and citizens.

In order to support our annual operations we need the support of patrons like you. Here is how you can help. Become a sponsor of the Midland Valley Agriculture Program. Any amount will be accepted and greatly appreciated. There is no minimum patronage. For those who are interested, here is what we will do for you in return for your patronage.
